

Welcome: With a healthy earth,
clean air & water, the people, plants and animals
can live together for eternity.

Protect Our Heritage 9th Annual
“WALK FOR LIFE”
The Next Generation
Sunday: October 12, 2008
10:00am – 4:00pm
At Tule Elk State Reserve
8653 Station Rd, Buttonwillow 93206

Directions:
exit fwy 5 at Stockdale
Hwy, travel west to Morris Rd, turn left to the Tule Elk
State Reserve

The Children’s Corner:

Basketweaving with Lorene Sisquoc, Mountain Cahuilla/Fort Sill Apache,

Make milkweed cordage with Don Jack, Mono Yokuts, Create butterfly wings and flowers to join with nature in the children’s first “Walk for Life”

Tour:

Take an elk tour with Park Ranger Bill Moffat at the Tule Elk State Reserve, A California State Park

Native Artists:

Steve Gonzales,
Tubatalabal

Gloria Casillas,
Chumash

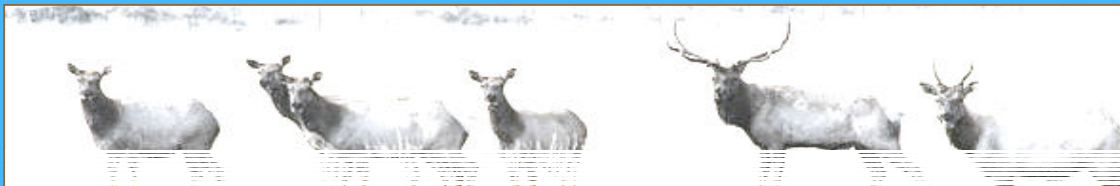

Lupe Salazar,
Kumeyaay, Basketweaver

Nicola Larsen,
YowlumneYokuts
Basketweaver

MichaelBracamontes, Ahachemen/
Juaneno

Food & Beverages
Available

Exhibitors: RENEWABLE ENERGIES/OPEN SPACE/RECYCLE/ WATER CONSERVATION - Wildlands Conservancy/ Wind Wolves Preserve, Owens Valley Career Development Center, Tony Pereira– UCLA Ph.D Candidate, Center for Biological Diversity, Sharpe Solar, Bakersfield & Kern County Energy Watch, California Highway Patrol, Bakersfield Association for Retarded Citizens, Valley Fever Coalition, Drought Tolerant Landscaping, Center for Race, Poverty
& the Environment. Matilia Nurserv. Kern Water Bank

Contacts:D Dominguez (626)339-6785, (661) 637-1851 Tule Elk State Reserve (661) 764- 6881

Sponsors: Kitanemuk & Yowlumne Tejon Indians, Owens Valley Career Development Center

Tinoqui-Chalola Cultural & Community Center, PO Box 10766, Bakersfield, CA 93389-0766